

Caregiver Skills

Sample Skill Statements

Providing exceptional in-home support to clients with a wide range of disabilities, illnesses, and other challenges.

Care for multiple clients on a rotating schedule.

Assist patients with multiple chronic diagnoses, including Alzheimer's, COPD and Diabetes.

Assist clients with daily living activities and personal grooming.

Help patients complete prescribed therapy and exercise routines.

Groom, bathe and dress clients.

Plan and prepare meals following nutrition plan.

Monitor needed medical and daily supplies.

Lay out medication and instructions to ensure proper dosages following doctor's instructions.

Drove client to all appointments, picked up groceries, and collected medications.

Support patients with customized patient teaching tools.

Ensure efficacy of treatments through monitoring of treatment regimens.

Train clients on independent living skills.

Follow doctor's orders for home treatment plans and administered medications.

Monitor and document vitals and behavioral changes or new symptoms.

Work with doctors and nursing staff to implement total care

Manage schedules, drive clients to appointments, collect medication.

Provide training in geriatric patient care to family members.

Collaborate with doctors and nursing staff for a range of medical procedures.

Work with elderly patients dealing with diminished mental capacities.

Perform light housekeeping duties and meal preparation.

Communicate with clients' families and medical care providers on regular basis

Certifications

CPR/AED/1st Aid, CNA 1, CNA 2, HHA Training (varies by state)