

Sam Tran

9419 NE 72rd St.
Portland, OR

(503) 523-9026
sam.tran@gmail.com

Profile

Master craftsman with excellent manual dexterity and training in dental removables seeks position as a Dental Lab Technician

Summary of Skills and Qualifications

- Skill using small hand instruments with accuracy and efficiency
- Knowledge of tooth anatomy and dental terminology
- Able to read and comprehend English and work from dental prescriptions
- Able to maintain a clean, efficient and organized work environment
- Proficient at working independently and as a team member
- Able to use computers to enter, access, and retrieve data

Relevant Experience

Portland Community College Dental Lab

2012 – Present

- Experience pouring molds, constructing baseplates and dentures
- Skilled at working with materials such as waxes, plastics, acrylics
- Able to use articulators to test appliances
- Skilled with full and partial denture occlusal grinding, setting cases into models, making minor repairs and completing polish and high shine

Education

AAS, Dental Laboratory Technology
Portland Community College; Portland, OR

2014

AA, Data Network and Telecommunications
Clark College; Vancouver, WA

1999

Previous Employment

Master Craftsman
Christensen Shipyards; Vancouver, WA

1999-2010

- Built cabinets and appliances for large yachts
- Experienced working with hand and power tools and machinery
- Worked on complicated projects requiring skills to accomplish very detailed work
- Eye for aesthetics and experience in ornamental carving