

Sally Jones
6245 SE Spokane Street
Ridgefield, Washington 98642
(360) 555-1111 sally.jones@pcc.edu

Objective

Full-Time Position as a Radiologic Technologist

Principal Skills

- Competent in performing fluoroscopic procedures, myelography, emergency and trauma radiography, surgery and C-arm cases
- Provided radiation protection to patients and personnel in accordance with prescribed standards
- Received approximately 2400 hours of clinical experience and completed 100 routine competencies for basic, complex, portable and surgical examinations
- Well organized, willing to work hard to decrease organizational costs without compromising patient care
- Able to work quickly, efficiently and independently as well as with others
- Performed blood drawing techniques; both by venipuncture (syringe and vacutainer) and skin puncture

Work Experience

Radiology Clinical Rotation	Southwest Washington Medical Center, Vancouver, WA Adventist Hospital, Portland, OR Doernbecher Children's Hospital, Portland, OR
Phlebotomist	Kaiser Permanente, Portland, OR	2000-2005
Phlebotomy Rotation	Providence Hospital, Portland, OR	2000
Care Provider	Agape Adult Foster Care, Tigard, OR	1998-2000

Certification

ARRT Board Eligible, September 2007

Education

Associate of Applied Science Degree in Radiography – August 2007
Portland Community College, Portland, OR

Phlebotomy – June 2000
Clark College, Vancouver, WA

References Available on Request