

DOUG COLEMAN

dougcoleman@hotmail.com

197 SW 138th Avenue
Oregon City, OR 97555

(503) 555-5555

OBJECTIVE

Registered Nurse, Critical Care

PROFILE

- Experience in various health care settings, including hospitals, mental health outpatient clinics, and convalescent homes.
- Understand the needs of a diverse patient population; provided care for children, adults, geriatric, injured, chronically ill, and disabled patients.
- Familiar with the use of ventilators, respirators, IVs, and EKGs.
- Completed over 400 nursing clinical and 150 lab hours.

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCEClinical Preceptorship Legacy Emanuel Hospital, Portland, OR 2004

- Completed 136 hour clinical preceptorship on the Surgical Specialties Unit.
- Technical skills performed included IV therapy, IV starts, medication administration, PCA monitoring, dressing change, patient documentation and discharge planning.

Nursing Program Clinical Rotations 2003-2004

- Developed knowledge of comprehensive nursing care procedures and excellent direct patient care skills through clinical rotations at the following:
 - Friendship Health Center: Long term care rotation
 - Housing Authority of Portland: Mental health rotation
 - Portland Adventist: Medical, cardiac and obstetrical units
 - Portland Adventist Convalescent: Long term care rotation
 - Veterans Hospital: Cardiac care unit

Certified Nursing Assistant Bess Kaiser Medical Center, Portland, OR 2001

- Managed personal care for a varied population of patients in every area of hospital including oncology, neuro-ortho-urology, cardiac, pediatric, obstetrics and women's health.

Certified Nursing Assistant Crestview Convalescent, Portland, OR 2000

- Assisted patients in activities of daily living, took vitals, reported significant assessment information and worked over one year at skilled nursing.
- Demonstrated ability to provide care for joint arthroplasty, CVA and terminal care patients.

EDUCATION

A.A.S. Nursing, Portland Community College, Portland, OR 2004
BA Sociology, Portland State University, Portland, OR 1999