

Practice Final Exam

The actual final will be shorter than this.

I will ask you vocabulary questions; skills questions; and fiction reading questions.

Important Reading Vocabulary. Know the meaning of each word.

1. scan –	10. part of speech –
2. skim –	11. word family –
3. heading, subheading -	12. outline -
4. bullet point -	13. setting –
5. topic or subject –	14. character –
6. main idea –	15. theme –
7. comprehension -	16. title -
8. example -	17. predict -
9. core meaning -	18. fiction / nonfiction -

Unit 1

end up as, not surprisingly, nothing more than, range from __ to __, take the place of, throw away, along with, hold onto, in place of, in some cases, look into

Unit 2

be responsible for, for the time being, in the process of, it turns out that, on the other hand, to some degree, be concerned about, identity theft, in the meantime, invasion of privacy, social media, take a picture

Unit 3

more and more, public transportation, traffic congestion, be symbolic of, have a vision, a large number of, make a decision, a sense of unity, succeed in

Unit 4

made up of, do research on, be addicted to, no question that, have sth in common

Unit 6: Make your own list!

Short-Answer. Answer each question with a sentence.

1. Tell me what steps you should do BEFORE you start reading a non-fiction assignment.
2. What should you do about 24 hours after reading an assignment?
3. What is "scanning"? How is it different from "skimming"?
4. What is the difference between the title of a reading, the topic of a reading, and the main idea of a reading?
5. What are some differences between fiction writing and non-fiction writing?
6. What is a schema?

Unit 6: Review these questions to prepare for a new reading

1. For animals, what are the benefits of living together? Think of different animals and specific ways they benefit from living in a group.
2. How is a "pack" different from a "colony" and a "swarm"? What are other names for animal groups?

