

MATH 93 CRN 10527, PCC Sylvania, Winter 2013

Th 2:00-3:50 SCB 205

Instructor: Joseph Bradford

Office : ST 104

Office Hours: Tues 3–4 p.m.

Phone : 971-722-3389

E mail: jbradfor@pcc.edu

webpage: spot.pcc.edu/~jbradfor

Intro to the TI-89 Graphing Calculator, 1 Cr Introduces basic use of graphing calculators. Explores the power of graphing calculators' computer algebra systems. The TI-89 (or TI-92 or Voyage 200) or Casio ClassPad 330 graphing calculator is required. Prerequisite: MTH 60 or equivalent placement.

Grading: This course is only offered using the Pass/No Pass option.

		Wednesday
week 1	1/17	Introduction and Graphing
week 2	1/24	Intro. cont. and Worksheet week 3	1/31	Programs and Transferring week 4	2/7	Solving
week 5	2/14	Statistics

Attendance Be here, or fail. Attendance will be taken each day. If you miss more than 1 class day, you will receive a grade of “NP” or No Pass. If you do miss a class, you are expected to make up any of the worksheets.

Worksheets

We will work on various problems and worksheets each week, you are expected to fully participate with any of the worksheets.

If, at any time you have a pertinent question, PLEASE ASK!

If you require specific instructional accommodations, please notify me early in the course.

Here is the link to the Course Content and Outcome Guide which lays out the required content for this course:

<http://www.pcc.edu/ccog/default.cfm?fa=ccog&subject=MTH&course=93>

Some aspects of this syllabus are tentative and may be changed to meet class needs.