Make up absence sheet

If you are absent, you should come to the other class to make up your absence. If this is not possible, you may make up two absences per quarter by going to the tutor and doing the same activities we did in class. An absence must be made up within one week of returning to class. To make up an absence, print off the summary of activities we did for the day from the class webpage at <http://spot.pcc.edu/~kshmakov> (under the homework link) and take the summary to the tutor. (The tutors have no idea what we do in class, so unless you bring the list of activities with you, you will not be able to make up your absence.) Do the activities, have the tutor sign this sheet and turn in to me to get credit. You may make up absences only with the tutors. The tutor schedule is posted on the class webpage.

Extra credit for working with tutors

In addition to completing the oral assessment activities with the tutors, you may earn extra credit spending time with the tutor practicing new material. You will earn 1 point for thirty minutes of work. You may earn a maximum of 5 points per quarter this way. If you know a native speaker, you may also practice with that person and receive credit. To get extra credit points for tutor work, have the tutor sign, date this sheet, and note what you did together. Turn in this sheet to have your points recorded. (All extra credit points will count towards homework.) I will return it to you, so that you can use it again.
